Congratulations on your commitment to certification in medical-surgical nursing. This guide will assist you in either renewing your Certified Medical-Surgical Registered Nurse (CMSRN®) certification through our renewal process or becoming a CMSRN through our exam exemption process.

CONTACT HOURS TRACKER

The Contact Hours Tracker offers you the online convenience of taking charge of your certification renewal plan. When you choose to renew by continuing education, the Contact Hours Tracker is your online resource for planning, tracking, and applying for certification renewal.

Use the Contact Hours Tracker to enter and track contact hours, store your employment information, review the verification status of self-reported contact hours, and apply for CMSRN certification renewal.

The Contact Hours Tracker is a simple tool that shows your certification information, how close you are to renewing, and the contact hours counting toward your certification renewal.

CERTIFICATION RENEWAL

The CMSRN credential is valid for a period of 5-years. Certification renewal is required to maintain the CMSRN credential through the Medical-Surgical Nursing Certification Board (MSNCB®).

The certification renewal options are:

RENEW BY CONTINUING EDUCATION

To renew by continuing education, first you must meet specific eligibility requirements (see eligibility criteria on page 2), comply with any application deadlines, and pay the appropriate certification renewal fee. Self-report contact hours, update employer information, and apply online through your Contact Hours Tracker at amsn.org.

RENEW BY EXAM

To renew by examination, you must meet the exam eligibility criteria, complete the CMSRN Renew by Exam Application, and pay the appropriate application fee.

RENEW BY EXAM EXEMPTION

Certification renewal by exam exemption is offered to those registered nurses who are already certified in medical-surgical nursing by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC). An exam exemption application must be submitted thirty (30) days prior to the current certification expiration date, or up to one (1) year after the expiration date with a late fee*.

You must meet the same eligibility criteria as renewing CMSRNs. Exam Exemption candidates can complete the online exam exemption application after creating an account. More information can be found at amsn.org. If you have further questions after reviewing the website, feel free to contact customer service by emailing certification@amsn.org.

*If your ANCC certification has expired, you are required to pay a late fee in addition to the application fee to apply for the CMSRN credential. Contact hours earned after your expiration date may be used one time only.
CERTIFICATION RENEWAL ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

1. Hold a current certification in medical-surgical nursing through MSNCB or the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC).

   AND

2. Hold a current, full, and unrestricted license as a registered nurse (RN) in the United States, its territories, or Canada; OR Hold a current, full, and unrestricted license as a first-level nurse in the country in which one's nursing education was completed, and meet the eligibility for licensure as a registered nurse (RN) in the United States in accordance with the requirements of the Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools (CGFNS).

   AND

3. Have accrued a minimum of 1,000 hours of nursing practice over the last five years in a medical-surgical setting. Practice may include clinical, management, or education.

   RN students in a nursing baccalaureate, master's, or doctoral degree program can waive the employment requirement by submitting documentation signed by a school official verifying full-time status and matriculation along with the application. Academic courses must be biopsychosocial content and must be offered by an accredited educational institution.

   AND

4. Have earned 90 approved contact hours over the five-year period. At least 68 of these approved contact hours must be medical-surgical related. The remainder of the contact hours may be professional development or other nursing related subjects.

   CNE education programs must be presented by an individual, state, or national organization accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education.

   For initial certification renewal, contact hours earned as of January 1 of the first year of initial certification are acceptable. For all following certification renewals, contact hours within the current certification period may be submitted. Contact hour entries may be used in one certification renewal period only.

MSNCB shall not discriminate against any certification candidate on the basis of age, sex, race, religion, national origin, ethnicity, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or gender identity. MSNCB shall not publish materials with discriminatory content, graphics or language that may be offensive to population subgroups.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

When your 90 contact hours have been entered and verified, you’ve entered the required employment information, and you are within the application submission time frame, the online application and payment screen can be accessed from your Contact Hours Tracker at amsn.org.

Certification renewal applications will be accepted online only via your Contact Hours Tracker by selecting “renew now.”

Certification Renewal Application Deadlines

You are eligible for CMSRN certification renewal starting one year prior to and up to one year after your current certification expiration date.

If your certification expires, you have a one-year grace period in which to renew (with a late fee). The CMSRN credential cannot be used with after your certification expiration date. After confirmation that your renewal was approved, you may resume using your CMSRN credential.

Your application deadline date is 30 days prior to your certification expiration date.

Allow up to 10 business days for self-reported contact hours to be reviewed and verified. After all required contact hours are verified, submit your application no later than 30 days prior to your certification expiration date to avoid a late fee.
INACTIVE OR RETIRED STATUS
(Not applicable to exam exempt applicants.)

Inactive Status or Retired Status are alternatives for current CMSRNs. Online applications must be submitted no later than 90 days prior to certification expiration and will only appear as an optional application in your account if you meet this time sensitive eligibility requirement. Candidates applying for Inactive Status will be required to upload a detailed letter of explanation and can include supporting documentations. Candidates applying for retired status will be required to upload a letter provided to your employer or other supporting documentation confirming retirement. If granted, the Inactive or Retired Status begins the day after CMSRN certification expires.

Inactive Status:
CMSRNs unable to meet the continuing educational or practice requirements may apply for Inactive CMSRN Status. Inactive status is for one 3-year period only and is a one-time career option. There are no exceptions or extensions to this time frame.

Inactive Status lasts for three years during which the certificant may not use the CMSRN credential. A nurse who uses CMSRN during Inactive Status will have the certification revoked. Nurses on Inactive Status will receive reminders in the last year of Inactive Status and must meet current certification renewal requirements.

Retired Status:
CMSRNs who have retired within the current certification period but wish to stay connected with other CMSRNs may apply for Retired Status.

CMSRN Retired designation is renewable every five years. The retired nurse may use “CMSRN Retired” on a resume or below their name and credential on a business card but may NOT be used after your signature (e.g. patient chart, name badge). If a CMSRN Retired nurse re-enters the nursing workforce within the first year of the status, the nurse may regain the CMSRN credential via continuing education. If the CMSRN-Retired nurse re-enters the nursing workforce after the first year of the status, the nurse must regain CMSRN by examination.

found at the end of this guide or on the MSNCB website for the hours to be verified. If reporting academic courses, you must upload a copy of your unofficial transcript before the hours will be verified.

Your application deadline date is 30 days prior to your certification expiration date. Complete your application by selecting “Renew Now” from your Contact Hours Tracker. Applications submitted after the deadline date will incur a $75 late fee.

You are eligible for certification renewal as early as one year before your certification expiration date, and up to one year after this time (with a late fee).

How far back can I claim contact hours?
You can include any contact hours beginning from January of the year you were initially certified, or from your most recent certification renewal date.

How come my category type changed to Professional Development (PROFDEV)?
MSNCB staff review and verify each contact hour activity. Activities with topics that cover the broad area of health care and general nursing are categorized as professional development. Staff adjust the category before verifying the activity.

How do I know if my contact hours are medical-surgical or professional development?
There are several ways to determine if the content of your contact hours is medical-surgical or professional development. If the topic is covered on the exam blueprint, the activity is acceptable for medical-surgical. Topics like leadership, how to conduct research, nursing theory, informatics, pediatrics, and ethics are considered professional development.

Do all medical-surgical nursing contact hours (CH) need to be awarded through AMSN?
No. CNE activities must be provided or co-provided by any individual, state, or national organization accredited as a provider or approver of continuing nursing education. However, AMSN is an excellent resource for medical-surgical nursing education and all AMSN awarded CHs may be counted toward medical-surgical practice.

Do I send in copies of my contact hour certificates?
No, do not send copies of your certificates when you apply. Retain your certificates in case your application is selected for random audit. Application selected for audit are required to submit a copy of all certificates within a 30-day time frame.

I have more contact hours of continuing education than the required amount. Should I list more activities I attended?
Yes. Please limit additional contact hours to 5 to 10.

Do I have to wait until my current ANCC medical-surgical certification is about to expire to apply for the CMSRN?
You may apply for exam exemption no sooner than 30-days prior to the current certification expiration date, or up to one (1) year after the expiration date with a late fee.

What will happen if I am unable to meet the continuing education requirements for certification via exam exemption?
If you are unable to meet the continuing education requirements for certification via exam exemption, you can obtain certification by taking the CMSRN examination.

I attended a medical-surgical program that offered continuing medical education (CME) credit, but not nursing contact hours. Can I use this?
Yes, as long as the content is also useful for nursing.

I am the second author of a medical-surgical nursing article published in a recognized professional journal. Can I receive partial or full credit for publication?
Both authors and co-authors receive full credit.

I attended a certification review course before taking the exam. Will I be able to use this course’s contact hours when I renew?
Yes, if you took the course in the same year you became certified.

The preceptor form is found at the end of this guide or at amsn.org.
This form must be completed and uploaded when reporting preceptor/mentor hours in your Contact Hours Tracker.
